HE NATIONAL TAX. The Taxes Imposed of the Tax Bill, and Passed by Congress, June 23d, 1862-The Duties on Incomes, Insusurance Companies, Railroad Com-Ac. The Taxes on Distilled Manufactures, Oils, Paper, Candles, Tobacco, Small, Segars, from, Soup, Screws, Cloth, Leather, Glue, Wine. Cont, &c .- The Tax on Cotton-The License Tax, &c., &c. DESCRIPTION DESCRIPTION The Tax Bill just passed both Honses of Congress on the 23d of June. We give below a table of the laxes imposed. The names of the articles and classes of persons taxed, are arranged in alphabetical form, rendering the table valuable for convenient and ready reference: The taxes imposed are of the following different classes. First—A tax on persons and corporations e gaged in certain pursuits, for licenses. Second—A tax on manufactured articles, products, i.e., to be paid by the manufacturer or producer when he sells such articles or products. Thirdr—A duty on incomes of individuals, railroad and steamboat companies, public officers and others. Fourth—Duties to be paid for stamps, which the bill requires to be affixed to certain papers, medicines, documents, i.e. The Tax Bill is to go into effect on the first of August large portion of the people of the Northern States will be called on for the income tax, concerning the payment of which an erroneous impression is prevalent. It is not to be paid immediately, on the income and profits of the year aiready passed, but will become tue on the 1st of May, 1863, and is to be levied on the income for the year g. A limit is placed to the time in which the tax half be in operation, the date fixed for it to cease being The President may divide the States into districts, not acceeding the number of congressional districts, and apoint an assessor and collector (to be confirmed by the nate) for each district. Each assessor may divide his districts into convenient sub-districts, and appoint an as sistant in each division. Each collector may appoint as ny deputies as he may deem proper. Bonds are re-red. Collectors to pay and be responsible for acts of All persons, partnerships, firms, corporations, or associations, are required to make lists of all their property mes taxed by this law, on the 1st of August, 1862, and 1st of May thereafter, and deliver such list or stateent to the assistant collector of the district. A fine of $500 is imposed for incorrect lists. Persons refusing to furni h a list of their taxable effects and incomes to be fined $'00, and the assessor will make a list and then add fifty per cent. to it, and the assessors are authorized to enter dwellings and places, to ascertain ots without first giving notice to the assessed The collectors shall give notice by advertisements or t bills of the time when assessments are due, and if they are not paid within ten days of that time, ten per centum shall be added to the amount assessed; and the collector or a deputy shall, within twenty days thereafter, call upon the persons refusing to pay, demanding the amount due, with ten per cent addition; and, if not paid then, the collector may sell enough of the property assed to raise the taxes, ten per cent added, and the eximplements of a trade or profession, one cow, arms, isions, and household furniture kept for use, and el necessary for a family shall be exempt from such ie. Property that cannot be divided, to be sold entire, and the surplus paid back to the owners. If property taxed cannot be sold for the amount of the taxes, it shall be lid in by the collector for the United States, and then for whatever sum it may bring. Fine for obstructing or hindering a collector or deputy, The compensation of collectors is four per centum on the first hundred thousand dollars collected, and one per furn on all over that sum, and a proper amount of funary, etc., is also allowed. Out of the commissions the collectors must pay their deputies. If the taxes cannot be collected in any State, at the lime specified in the act, the President is directed to colbut them as soon as possible, adding six per cent interest The collectors may grant licenses for distilling; the coltectors to appoint in spectors of distilled liquors. The distillers may exect bouded warehouses, under certain retrictions. The provisions in regard to beer and distilled liquors are lengthy and in detail. The penalties for carrying on any business for which a Railroads and Ferries to pay 3 per cent on their gross receipts for passengers. If not using steam, 1% per cent.
